

IDRS Acorn Project Presents

Improving Engagement and Participation With Youth Learners

Part of the Teaching Native Youth Financial Independence Through Entrepreneurship Webinar Series

Are you a youth leader or facilitator and need some new ideas to get and keep the youth engaged in person or online? Do you know how to build buy-in and rapport with your youth that encourages participation? Do you know how to use activities to reinforce what you are teaching and how to use them to reach all types of learners?

If you would like to learn this and more on how to facilitate learning with youth, join IDRS and Camille Koster, veteran youth facilitator for an interactive workshop and learn how to:

- Build buy-in and rapport with the youth
- Reinforce the learning you are teaching through activities and interactions
- Build teamwork and collaboration
- Improve youth engagement and participation
- Teach to all learning modality

This webinar is free and open to all service providers working with youth. This webinar will be delivered online utilizing the Zoom platform. The workshop can be taken on computers and smartphones.

Thursday, September 23th, 2021

9:00 am Pacific

10:00 am Mountain

11:00 am Central

12:00 pm Eastern

Taught By:
Camille Koster (Cherokee)

For more information
Contact Camille:
camille@idrsinc.org

IDRS Inc.

idrsinc.org | nativebiz.org

ACORN
PROJECT

To register: ntv.bz/septemberyouth

This workshop is being funded in part by the USDA Rural Development, the Small Business Administration, and the California Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development.