JOB LOCATION: Eureka, CA
SUPERVISOR: Chief Administrative Officer
SUPERVISES: N/A
STATUS: Non-Exempt
COMPENSATION: $52,000–$62,400 Commensurate with Experience

AGENCY DESCRIPTION:

Located on the beautiful North Coast, the Northern California Indian Development Council, Inc. is a private nonprofit corporation that annually provides services to 14,000 to 15,000 clients statewide. NCIDC was established in 1976 to research, develop, and administer social and economic development programs designed to meet the needs of Indian and Native American Communities; to provide support and technical assistance for the development of such programs, and the conservation and preservation of historic and archeological sites and resources.

GENERAL FUNCTION:

Under the direction of the Chief Administrative Officer , and in consultation with the NCIDC Youth Division key staff including Youth Outreach Coordinator or another designee, the Youth Suicide Prevention Specialist helps to develop and implement a youth suicide prevention campaign involving young adults, community partners, and other key stakeholders. The goal of the program is to reduce incidents of suicide ideation and attempts and to provide support for youth contemplating self-harm. This program is primarily funded under a grant from the State of California through the Sierra Health Foundation.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Reviews current literature and best practices related to youth suicide prevention.
- Supervises youth in their delivery of various workshops and sessions as well as in the creation of outreach and media projects to promote youth suicide prevention.
- Co-facilitates the NCIDC Youth Advisory Board (YAB) and ensures that youth participate in regular meetings and provide feedback. Ensures that the YAB hosts at least two listening sessions per year.
- Works with partner organizations which offer training for our youth on relevant topics.
- Provides support to NCIDC Youth program staff and community partners on managing youth media centers in Del Norte, Humboldt, Siskiyou, and Trinity County
- Participates in regular convenings and trainings of the primary funder to learn best practices for implementing the youth outreach and media campaign.
- Works with Da'luk Clinical staff for referrals to counseling, including access to individual and group counseling services as well as case management.
- Collect data and submit required data to the NCIDC Data Analysis Unit. Reviews data reports prior to submission to the State of California and the Sierra Health Foundation.
- Completing the program reporting requirements.

- Managing policies, procedures and forms in collaboration with the Da'luk Social Worker, Clinical Supervisor, and Assistant Director.
- Assists with Youth Division day-to-day duties: planning and coordinating convenings, events, and workshops, as needed. Assists with recruiting efforts for Youth Outreach community engagement and participation.
- Refer clients to appropriate community resources.
- Participate in trainings/workshops to continue development, relating to Youth Outreach Program objectives.
- Performs other duties as necessary or as requested by your Supervisor.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Valid California Driver's License or State Identification
- Background Check (LiveScan)

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree in Social Work, Business Administration, or other related fields
- At least 1–2 years as a previous Program Coordinator professional or other experience in a relevant field, such as organizing, Tribal government, policy-advocacy, the non-profit or legal services sector, or education sector
- At least 1–2 year of office management, administrative, or assistant experience
- Dependable, punctual, and able to maintain a high level of confidentiality about sensitive and personal information
- Experience working with consultants or partners on completing projects
- Ability to plan and implement community meetings, trainings, and other events, including developing a timeline and materials and following up with participants

DESIRED QUALITIES:

- Demonstrated success in building and maintaining relationships with Native communities, Native-led organizations, and Local Tribes;
- Strong public speaking and meeting/training facilitation skills, especially when working with people from diverse backgrounds, professions or knowledge bases;
- Familiarity with, and commitment to, the mission and vision of the NCIDC
